

Brief Speaker Introduction

Dr. Beth-Sarah Wright is the creator of the DIGNITY Lens®, a practical framework that helps leaders and organizations live more authentically into their mission and values by centering human dignity.

An author, speaker, and founder of Thrive With Dignity, Dr. Wright partners with schools and universities, corporations, nonprofits, dioceses, and faith communities to increase organizational capacity, navigate adaptive challenges, and build authentic communities where people and mission flourish with integrity.

She currently serves as Acting Executive Director of the Absalom Jones Episcopal Center for Racial Healing in the Episcopal Diocese of Atlanta. She is also the author of seven books, including DIGNITY: Seven Strategies for Creating Authentic Community, selected as the 2023 Featured Book of the Year by the National Association of Episcopal Schools.

A former professor at New York University and Spelman College, and currently an Adjunct Assistant Professor in Psychiatry at Emory University School of Medicine, Dr. Wright brings together scholarship, practical strategies, and a focus on humanity to help leaders and communities grow with integrity.
